

Tragedy in the Graveyard

Chapter Nine

1. Why had Tom and Huck gone to the graveyard? Tom and Huck went to the graveyard at ^{mid} ^{night} so they could cure warts with Huck's dead cat. The moon had to be shining and had to be in the shade of a tree and they had to do it next to a freshly buried person.
2. What were Muff Potter, Injun Joe, and Dr. Robinson doing in the graveyard? Muff Potter and Injun Joe were in the graveyard to get money from doctor Robinson to pay a debt.
3. What grudge does Injun Joe hold against Dr. Robinson? The grudge that Injun Joe holds against Dr. Robinson is Injun Joe went to his door asking for some food but Dr. Robinson's ^{father} turned him away and put him in jail.
4. Who really killed Dr. Robinson? Injun Joe killed doctor Robinson.

Injun Joe holds grudges

Dire Prophecy of the Howling Dog

Chapter Ten

1. Why were the boys afraid to tell anyone what happened? They were afraid to tell anyone what happen because they were afraid that Injun Joe will kill them.
2. What did they do to make sure neither would tell? They swore one another that they would drop dead and then signed their name with blood.
3. What is the significance of the stray dog in this chapter? The significance of a stray dog is if the dog is facing you it means you will die.
4. What was the final feather that broke the camel's back? The final feather that broke the camel's back was Becky gave back the brass knob that Tom gave her. Before that his aunt Polly said he broke her heart. So when Becky gave the door knob he couldn't take it any more heart breaks.

Conscience Racks Tom

Chapter Eleven

1. Why did the boys want to watch Injun Joe at night? They wanted to watch Injun Joe at night because they thought Injun Joe was under the power of the devil and the boys want to see the master. (devil) (sold his soul)
2. Cite three things that Tom does that show his conscience is bothering him.
 - ① He starts talking in his sleep about blood.
 - ② He was thinking about going to court
 - ③ He avoid the inquest
 - ④ Went to the jail and offered things to Muff Potter